The New Underground Press An Introduction to the Less Well Known Magazines on the Left

Many people may not be fully aware of the range and richness of the contemporary left's periodical literature. Magazine racks are disappearing even from university bookstores and radical publications are disappearing from those racks still existing. As an example, Out Of Town News, at Harvard Square, used to carry a reasonably good selection of radical journals, magazines and newspapers. Now they have only a few. Virtually no radical publications even make it into standard magazine outlets, say in Store 24, Barnes and Noble, or street corner stands. We hope this brief survey will help inform. It has been hastily compiled (our apologies for any oversights) and based mainly on material available at Red Book (so come on out to J.P!). Most of these magazines are published by collectives, often on a shoestring.

Arsenal: Surrealist Subversion. Black Swan Press, 1726 West Jarvis Ave, Chicago, Il. 60626.

Four issues in 18 years, but well worth the wait. Journal of the Chicago Surrealist group. The most brilliant invective in American literature. Angry. Uncompromising. Provocative. Mindblowing perspectives on just about everything. Total revolt. A must read for anyone who seriously hates capitalism.

Processed World, 41 Sutter St. #1829, San Francisco, Ca. 94104.

This is a hot little magazine. Started in early 80's. 23 issues so far. Absolutely fabulous graphics. A scream. Wild. Burns the screen of computer myths, automated office work, "clean" technology. Some fiction. Focus on work, and getting free from it. Implicit workers control perspective. You'll enjoy this one.

Red Balloon 2652 Cropsey Ave #7H, Brooklyn, NY 11214. Current issue, Spring, 1988 #13, $3.50

Hatched in 1969 at SUNY Stony Brook. Still going. Issue # 13 is a blockbuster. Large. Thoroughly nonsectarian. Thoroughly intelligent. Wide range of topics. Great graphics. The spirit of the sixties lives. This collective is with it. Very in touch. Aware.

Midnight Notes, box 204, Jamaica Plain, Ma, 02130 $7 for 2 issues.

Iconoclastic. Totally subversive. The "Great Refusal: into the eighties. Highly informed. Issues on computers, the anti-nuclear movement, the work/energy crisis, prisons/law/police. Some of the hottest political writing of the eighties. Nine issues since 1980.

Ideas and Action. P.O. Box 40400, San Francisco, CA, 94140, $6 for 4 issues.

Published by Workers Solidarity Alliance, which is the U.S. section of the International Workers Association (the "anarcho-syndicalist" international founded in Berlin in 1922). Excellent articles. Lots of international ties. Focus is on direct action, self-management, rank-and-file activism. 10 or 11 issues since early 80's

Changing Work. A magazine about liberating worklife. $14 for 4 issues. Heller School, Brandeis University, P.O. Box 9110, Waltham, Ma. 02254-9110. Started in 1984

Nine issues so far. Covers the actual movement for democracy and co-operation at the workplace. Most articles written by those involved. Currently publishing a set of 10-year retrospectives on worker-controlled enterprises.

Madness Network News P.O. Box 684, San Francisco, Ca. 94101

Hard hitting anti-psychiatry, anti-electric shock, anti-lobotomy magazine. Lots of writing by ex-patients. Covers the mental patients liberation movement. Shocking, Subversive (this publication may be defunct)

Connexions: An International Women's Quarterly Published by People's Translation Service, 4228 Telegraph Ave, Oakland, Ca 94609. $15/year.

Each issue focuses on a specific theme. A collective product of feminists of diverse nationalities and political perspectives. Many translations. Nicely done.

Rethinking Schools P.O. Box 93371, Milwaukee, Wi 53202 (414) 265-56217

3 years old. Published by "rank-and-file" classroom teachers and educators in Milwaukee. Seeks to break the domination of administrators and educational consultants over discussion of educational issues. Newspaper format. Stimulating.

Environmental Action, 1525 New Hampshire Ave, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036 (202) 745-4870 $20/year (6 issues)

One of the best all around sources of information about the environmental movement. Very nicely designed and produced magazine. Founded by the organizers of the first Earth Day.

Labor Notes. 7435 Michigan Ave, Detroit, Mi. 48210 (313) 842-6262 Monthly, $10/year

"Let's Put the Movement Back in the Labor Movement". Excellent 16 page newsletter on attempts to rejuvenate the labor movement from the bottom up. An efficient way to keep informed. Against "business unionism". National coverage. The group has also published several books. Resource lists.

On Gogol Boulevard. Networking Bulletin for Activists East and West. 151 First Ave #62, New York, NY 10003 (718) 499-7720 $5 for 4 issues.

Two years old. A project on "Neither East nor West". News from Russia and Eastern Europe. Anti-authoritarian focus (Libertarian Anarchist). Very hard to come by information like this.

Akwasne Notes Mohawk Nation, P.O. Box 196, Rooseveltown, N.Y. 13683-0196. 6 issues/year

The official publication of the Mohawk Nation. Newspaper format. 32 pages. Lots of news coverage and interpretive essays on the American Indian Movement. 21 years of publishing.

Nicaraguan Perspectives Nicaragua Information Center, PO Box 2929, Berkeley, Ca. 94618-0129. $12/year. 2-3 issues.

Full coverage of the Nicaraguan revolution and U.S. support groups and activities.

News and Letters, 59 East Van Buren, Room 707, Chicago, Il. 60605. $2.50/year - 10 issues

Newspaper of the "Marxist-Humanist" tendency developed by the late Raya Dunayevskaya and comrades. One of the oldest non-vanguard party radical publications in the U.S. Lots of rank-and-file reportage. Lots of international labor and movement news. Well worth a subscription.

New Politics. PO Box 98, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11231. $20 for 4 issues

A revival of the original New Politics (1961-1978). Pursues a "Third Camp" perspective, seeking to steer a course between the bankruptcy of Capitalism and Communism. Commitment to democracy. international Focus. Very solid journal on cutting edge of contemporary politics. Plenty of historical material.

Fifth Estate, Box 02548, Detroit, Mi. 48202. $5/year (quarterly)

An old-timer. A true survivor from the sixties. More than twenty years of continuous publication. Anti-authoritarian. Questions technology. Focuses on ecology, democracy. Two issues back, launched a critique of and debate about "Deep Ecology".

Covert Action Information Bulletin. PO Box 50272, Washington, DC 20004

Thoroughly researched articles on the government's "dirty tricks". Reportage on government spies, soldiers of fortune, the CIA's machinations abroad and at home, domestic surveillance, biological warfare. Had a special issue on the AIDS crisis. Very frightening material.

The Midwife Advocate Quarterly. PO Box 237, Newtonville, Ma 02160 522-7734. Basic membership: $20

Twelve page newsletter of the Massachusetts Friends of Midwives, a group fighting for birthing rights, against unnecessary medical intervention, and for expansion of midwifery

Worker's Democracy PO Box 24115, St. Louis, Mo. 63130. $6 for 4 issues.

One of the few magazines in the United States focusing on workers councils and workplace democracy from an independent Socialist point of view

New Directions for Women, 108 West Palisade Ave, Englewood, NJ. 07631. $10/year, 6 issues, 28 p

Founded in 1972. Newspaper format. Provides extensive coverage of the women's movement. Book reviews, international news

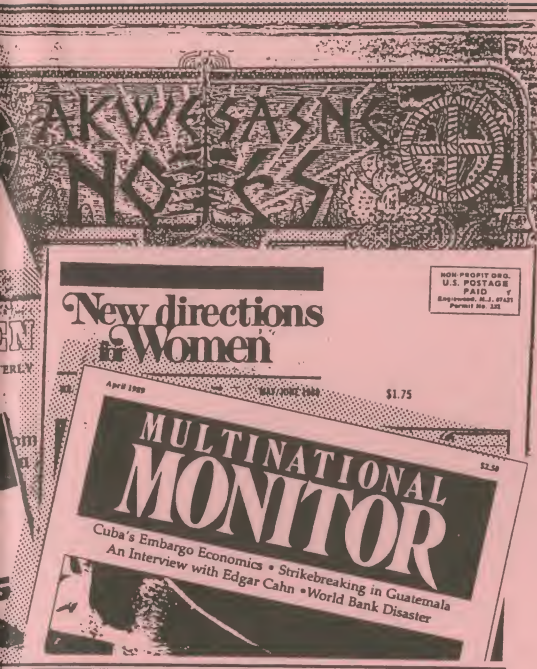

Propaganda Review Media Alliance, Bldg. D, Fort Mason, San Francisco, Ca 94123. $20 for 4 issues

New journal (4 issues so far) dealing with Newspeak. "Exposes, analyzes and confronts the image makers, the perception managers and the captains of consciousness."

Multinational Monitor. PO Box 19405, Washington DC. 20036. $22/year Monthly

Two-year old effort to monitor the machinations of multinational monster corporations. A useful endeavor considering that national boundaries are relatively meaningless now for understanding the world economy.

Labor Research Review, Midwest Center for Labor Research, 3411 West Diversey Ave., Chicago, Il. 60647. (312) 278-5418

Founded in 1982. A forum for labor and community activists. One of the group helping to revitalize the U.S. labor movement.

Libertarian Labor Review: A Journal of Anarcho-Syndicalist Ideas and Discussion. PO Box 2824, Station A, Champaign, Il. 61820. $5/year

One of only four magazines in the US following a more or less syndicalist approach (the others being Ideas & Action, Workers Democracy and Industrial Worker (IWW)). Takes a strict line against working through existing "business unions".

Against the Current, 7012 Michigan Ave, Detroit, Mi 48210 (313) 841-0160. $15/year (6 issues)

A general all purpose socialist magazine. Non-sectarian. Independent.

Across Frontiers. PO Box 2382, Berkeley, Ca. 94702. $10/year (4 issues)

"A quarterly devoted to texts and analyses from Eastern Europe's democratic and socialist opposition."

Social Text: Theory, Culture, Ideology. PO Box 1474, Old Chelsea Sta., NYC, NY, 10011. $20 for 4 issues

This journal is hard to characterize. It's creative and critical, but also somewhat academic. Helping to forge a Third Road tendency. Some literary criticism, but also articles on the whole range of left topics.

Free Association: Psychoanalysis, Groups, Politics, Culture. Free Association Books, 26 Freegrove Road, London N79RQ. $30/year (quarterly)

One of the few journals devoted to in-depth theoretical studies of issues related to psychoanalysis and psychotherapy. Grew out of the radical science collective—London. Started 1984

The Insurgent Sociologist. C/O Department of Sociology, University of Oregon, Eugene, Or 97403. $8/year

Another survivor. Started at Columbia University in late sixties. Subsequently moved with its editor to West Coast. A scholarly journal from an orthodox Marxist position. Praxis International Published by Basil Blackwell, 108 Cowley Rd. Oxford OX41JF, England.

Patterned after its predecessor, Praxis, from Yugoslavia, and involving many of the same people, this solid left journal provides non-sectarian analyses of wide ranges of topics facing the movement.

Radical Science. Free Association Books, 26 Freegrove Rd., London N79RQ. $25/year for 3 issues

"Provides a forum for extended analyses of the ideology and practice of science, technology, and medicine from a radical political perspective".

Radical Philosophy. c/o Howard Feather, Department of Community Studies, Thurrock Technical College, Woodview, Grays, Essex RM164YR, England. $20 (3 issues)

Another solid English publication. Covers wide range of contemporary philosophical issues as they relate to radical politics.

8:00 pm Bad Water, produced by TheaterWorks and directed by Vincent Murphy is a vivid account by Kirsten Giroux of a year-long round-the-world trip. Based on letters, postcards and journals, this intimate one-woman show ranges from the banks of the Ganges, to a real Turkish bath, a restaurant in China that becomes a disco, and beyond. But Bad Water is more than an unusual travelogue: it also reveals our sometimes fragile relationship to the natural world we live in. Water itself—good water, plentiful water, scarce water and sometimes very bad water—is the recurring theme of Giroux' performance. It's a theme that we all need to contemplate, as we in Boston face our own water crisis. Her Dream Kitchen, Part One, presented by "Dream House With Legs", is written by Deborah Fortson with choreography by Susan Dibble and a sound environment by Donald Dinicola. It's a surrealist play about a woman and her kitchen at midnight. Peculiar dances, voices which float into her window, relatives who appear uninvited, and bizarre deliveries are the "stuff that dreams are made of" in this kitchen. Tix for Thurs double bill are "pay what you can". At the Performance Place, 277 Broadway, Somerville. Info & reservations: Performance Place @ 623-5510.
